

Economics and Public Policy

Below are potential course sequences to fulfill the HSS minor in Economics and Public Policy. They are intended as suggestions as the sequences include only courses that are currently in the catalog. With the ongoing course developments, the options available to students will increase.

- 6 foundational credits: Macroeconomics and Microeconomics – SS 334 and SS 347;
- 6 upper-level electives credits (e.g. Cause-and-Effect, Intermediate Macroeconomics, Economic Growth and Development, Public Policy in Contemporary America, Comparative Politics).
