Art and Architecture students who are interested in applying for a Fulbright Fellowship are encouraged to attend this talk.

Jeremiah Coyle will talk about his experience as a Fulbright Fellow in Osaka, Japan, at the Osaka University of the Arts. Mr. Coyle will also show some of his work and discuss what he has described as an unconventional approach to a career in the arts.

Gwen Hyman, Director of the Center for Writing & Language Arts and The Cooper Union's Fulbright Program Adviser, will join Mr. Coyle to field questions about applying for a Fulbright Fellowship.
