

FISCAL SPONSORSHIP

PHILLIP STEARNS AKA PIXEL FORM.

12 NOON

TUESDAY, MARCH 30, 2010

41 COOPER SQUARE
LL101

Phillip Stearns (AKA Pixel Form) is a practitioner of sonic and visual arts; music composer and performer; electronics sculptor and installation artist. Central to his practice is the use of custom electronics, hand-craft, hardware hacking, media technologies, and iterative processes marked by a judicious use of materials, restraint, simplicity, a careful balance between conceptual depth and playfulness.

Mr. Stearns will show examples of his art work and discuss how he has made use of fiscal sponsorship to fund his projects.

For more information about Phillip Stearns, see <http://www.art-rash.com/pixelform>.

Juliana Steele, Program Specialist of Fiscal Sponsorship at Fractured Atlas, will join Mr. Stearns to provide information and field questions about fiscal sponsorship and contextualize it in relationship to other kinds of funding mechanism and resources.

Fractured Atlas is a non-profit organization that serves a national community of artists and arts organizations. Their programs and services facilitate the creation of art by offering vital support to the artists who produce it.

For more information about Fractured Atlas, see <http://www.fractured-atlas.org/>.

Architects and artists are invited to learn how to access funding and other resources for creative projects through fiscal sponsorship.

